REQUIREMENTS FOR SPONSORSHIP

Being a sponsor (Godparent) is a commitment before being an honor. Sponsorship implies a real appreciation of the Catholic Faith, not only in name, but in living and a willingness to share your Catholic faith. Sponsorship is a commitment to the person being baptized and/or confirmed that you are ready, willing and able to give witness to your Catholic faith not only in word, but in action, by living the faith to the fullest. Therefore, one should not ask relatives to be sponsors simply because of the relationship that exists.

Canon Law(s) #872, 3, 4 require the following:

1. The sponsor for Baptism must be baptized, have the use of reason, and the intention to be sponsor. In case of proxy sponsorship, (should you not be able to attend the Baptism) the intention should be expressed in writing by the sponsor.
  2. The sponsor chosen must not be the mother, father, wife, husband or fiancée of the one to be baptized.
  3. He/She must be in their 16th year or more and confirmed.
  4. He/She must know the fundamental truths of the Faith and be a practicing Catholic who goes to Mass on Sunday and Holydays, receives the sacraments and must see to the religious instruction of his/her own family. (Minimum requirements for reception of the sacraments; confession of serious sin once a year and Holy Communion during Easter time).
  5. He/She must not be under any Canonical Penalty, i.e.; if married, the marriage must be recognized by the Catholic Church.
- I have been asked to be a Godparent/Sponsor for the Sacrament of Baptism/Confirmation.
  - I have received the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.
  - I participate regularly with the community gathered for Sunday Eucharist and I give witness to my faith in Jesus Christ.
  - I actively strive to live out my commitment to the Lord and the Church Community by sharing my time, talents and financial resources with the Church as my means permit and the needs of the community demand.
  - I promise to give support to the person I am sponsoring by my prayers and by the Christian example of my daily life.
  - I am registered and a participating member of this parish community.
  - I am validly married in the Catholic Church (if not single).
